God Does NOT Exist Books Free Preview: Exclusive Chapter from Book 1

This chapter illustrates the psychological grip of karmic programming, and how even the educated, successful and rich people can be hijacked by mythological belief. It's not a mockery of individuals, but a revelation of the system that enslaves them.

The chapter, 'Yahweh's Last ShitPanters,' exposes the final grip of karmic delusion, and the absurd lengths to which programmed faith will go to preserve itself."

The God Series is a liberation manifesto, and this is one of its most revealing scenes.

Content Warning: This chapter contains explicit imagery and satirical treatment of religious devotion. It's not written to comfort believers, it's written to expose the absurdity of blind faith even when confronted with evidence.

Context: This excerpt comes from Book 1, which introduces the Karmic Organization. It is the hidden system that invented religions to control humanity. The chapter describes what happened on Planet Palki after the Karmic system was abolished and evidence was presented that god doesn't exist.

What makes this relevant to Earth: The same transformation coming to Palki is coming here. Understanding how the most devoted believers react to evidence prepares us for Earth's liberation.

Yahweh's Last ShitPanters

A few years after we started with our work on the neighboring planet Palki in 4. Dimension, we closed all the Karmic Centers from which Palkies, people like us, were forcibly incarnated on other planets and mostly on Earth (my incarnant Fedja is also from Palki), and when we presented concrete evidence to all the inhabitants, that the Karmic Evil Karmic Organization, which has terrorized our cosmos for millions of years, has invented all gods, religions, and faiths to deliberately subjugate, extort, and exploit the faithful, our friendly space friends, the Selini, the highly evolved humans from the 6th. Dimension, discovered in an underground cave on Palki a small group of Christian fanatical believers who, despite the publicly presented evidence that the Christian god Yahweh does not exist, still performed religious rituals and humbly worshiped him.

This group also included highly educated business people who were very rational in their companies and who demanded precise calculations or concrete proof for all projects. When it came to religious myths, however, their rational minds failed them completely and they blindly gave in to religious delusions, believing in mythological creatures and pretending that they were real.

In 2018, we have given all Palki new, young, healthy, and beautiful bodies that cannot get sick, are extremely strong, and do not get fat. We have also opened up the deliberately limited natural qualities, abilities, and talents of all of them.

The last group of fanatical believers who secretly worshiped Yahweh in an underground cave were very afraid that god would no longer recognize them because of their new, young, healthy, and beautiful bodies. Since the members of this misguided group could not find anything bad in their outward appearance because of the perfection of the changed people, they found weakness in their inward appearance. They stood in a circle, filled their pants with dirt, and dropped their trousers to their knees. Then they prayed and asked Yahweh for mercy. Thus they showed and proved to Him that they were still His filthy filth.

The Christian myth claims that people are bad, sinful, and cursed, and are therefore banished from Heaven to Hell on Earth, where they must suffer terribly and beg god for the grace to forgive them for sins they did not commit in the first place. The only bad thing the ShitPanters found in the New World was their excrement. So they put it in their underpants, showed them to Yahweh, and proved to him that they were still faithful to him. With their underpants full of excrement, they boasted to god that they were true believers who still believed and trusted in him, despite the publicly known and valid evidence that god was invented by karmicons and does not exist.

This is the power of karmic programming and blind, mindless, and fanatical faith in fabricated gods. After the planet is freed from the blockade of the higher beings and the Karmic System, Evil and its religions are abolished, and the proof that religions and gods are mere karmic fabrications is publicly presented, the majority of believers on Earth will immediately abandon religion as well, because they will finally feel safe enough to get out of god's hell.

The most die-hard will continue to kneel at the foot of the cross, pitying themselves and begging a fictional god for a handout.

We shall see which of the earthly theologians, apologists, devil's advocates, and defenders of the Christian faith, such as William Lane Craig, Frank Turek, and John Lennox, will be the first to fill their knickers, drop them to their knees, and swear eternal allegiance to Yahweh.

Author's Note: On "Yahweh's Last ShitPanters"

This chapter is not satire. It is a direct confrontation with the depth of karmic programming and the absurd rituals of religious delusion. Among the ShitPanters were not simple-minded MAGA followers, but highly educated, wealthy, and rational individuals. That is the proof that belief in mythological gods can override logic, evidence, and self-respect.

Their ritual — filling their underpants with excrement to prove loyalty to a fictional deity — is not a joke. It is a symbol of how deeply shame and fear are embedded in religious identity. Even in a liberated world, with perfect bodies and public proof that gods were karmic inventions, these believers clung to their filth as a badge of faith.

This scene exposes the psychological violence of religious programming, and the tragic loyalty it demands. It is not meant to offend, it is meant to liberate.

This is just one chapter from Book 1: "It's Finally PROVEN! God Does NOT Exist The FIRST valid EVIDENCE in History".

The Complete Book Series Reveals:

1. Who the Karmic Organization is and how they created all religions.
2. How Planet Palki achieved paradise after escaping karma.
3. Why even highly educated people fall for religious programming.
4. Practical exercises for healing from religious delusion and awakening to Pure Awareness.
5. Scientific, logical, ontological, and experiential evidence god doesn't exist.
6. Timeline of Earth's coming transformation.

The "ShitPanters" story is shocking but it's just the beginning.

This is just one of 400 pages. The evidence gets stronger, the story gets deeper, and the liberation gets closer.
